HARVEST HIGH JINKS

A splendid, fun-filled harvest festival returns on 28th and 29th January to welcome the new season at Stellenbosch's Delheim Estate and promises to be the ideal excursion for the whole family. Every ticket for the Delheim Harvest Festival includes a glass of mos (freshly pressed grape juice) and a homemade Bretzel on arrival, and the opportunity to pick and stomp grapes, take a tractor ride, enjoy live music and, of course, tuck into a splendid harvest feast. The lunch spread caters for everyone, including vegetarians, with the dishes taking inspiration locally as well as from Germany, the Netherlands, and the Cape Malay tradition. White, red and rosé wine from Delheim's popular Lifestyle range will be served with lunch. Dedicated entertainment has also been lined up for little visitors. Tickets are R650 per adult and R300 per child (four – 18 years) and must be booked online via Quicket. For more information, visit www.delheim.com.

FOUR-LEGGED GUESTS WELCOME

There is "room at the inn" for your fur babies when you next visit the Radisson RED V&A Waterfront Cape Town. And, thanks to a newly launched partnership, there is something for them to nibble on too. The hotel is partnering with Pet Heaven to extend its existing Pet-Friendly offering to pet families. As part of the PET-CATION campaign, they will be launching their new pet-friendly menu from the hotel's on-site restaurant. Fur baby parents will also find their rooms decked out with the comforts of pet beds and bowls from Urbanpaws, as well as an arrival treat. There are several pet-friendly markets and restaurants within walking distance of the hotel and lots to explore and do with your four-legged family members. All four-legged guests need to be socialised, and there is a limit of two pets per room.
